Dear EPA,

Our water and rivers are essential to life for all species. Even if Benzo(a)pyrene has been found to be less carcinogenic than previously thought, it is still known for many health risks, including cancer, heart disease, reproductive issues, & others. We need the strongest level of clean up of ALL known contaminants. Please do not weaken the clean up plan! Thank you for accepting comments.

Name: (b) (6) [redacted]

Zip code: 97211

Willamette River Advocacy Group

Attn:
Portland Harbor Superfund Comments
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency
805 SW Broadway, Suite 500 Portland, OR 97205