

Administrative Record File Available for the Creative Packaging and Paper Site Removal Action

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) announces that the Administrative Record File for the removal action at the Creative Packaging and Paper Site, Worcester, MA, is available for review. EPA seeks to inform the public of the availability of the Administrative Record File and to encourage the public to review and comment on it. Activities conducted under the removal action will protect public health, welfare, and the environment by removing hazardous substances, such as asbestos-containing material (ACM), and ignitable, corrosive, and reactive chemicals, from the Site. Activities include (but are not limited to) sampling, bulking or overpacking, and staging containers and materials already identified through inventory; pumping out contaminants from any vats or tanks, and then neutralizing, cleaning, and disabling those containers so they are no longer usable; removing and disposing of identified drums, containers, and ACM; performing any additional sampling, analysis, characterization, neutralization, bulking or overpacking, and removal of hazardous substances as deemed necessary by the On-Scene Coordinator (OSC); identifying and characterizing wastestreams, and developing waste disposal profiles; transporting and disposing of hazardous substances to EPA-approved off-site disposal and recycling facilities in a safe and cost-effective manner; and repairing response-related damages.

The Administrative Record File is the collection of documents that formed the basis for the selection of a removal action at the site. Documents include the Action Memorandum and Site Investigation Closure Memorandum. The Administrative Record File is available for review at the:
