

You're invited to a Special Event!

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) is holding an Open House

for the BoRit Asbestos Superfund Site

At

Daniel W. Dowling American Legion Post #769

351 W. Maple Avenue; Ambler, PA 19002

Tuesday, July 26, 2016

1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. — 6:00 pm to 9:00 pm

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) invites you to join us and representatives of several other organizations, including the Federal Emergency Management Administration (FEMA), Pennsylvania Department of Community and Economic Development, the Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection (PADEP), the Montgomery County Health Department, the Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry (ATSDR), Whitpain Township, the Wissahickon Valley Watershed Association, the Wissahickon Waterfowl Preserve, the University of Pennsylvania and the Temple University Center for Sustainable Communities. We hope you'll join us for an opportunity to discuss the BoRit Asbestos Superfund Site and your questions and concerns about topics, such as:

- ◆ EPA's work at the BoRit Site:
- ◆ Flooding concerns and how flood plain changes may effect you;
- ◆ Human health concerns; and
- ◆ Future plans for revitalizing West Ambler.

This is not a public meeting. There will be no presentations. Tables will be set up for participants listed above, and you may choose which representatives and organizations you want to visit. You can present questions or concerns, and the representatives will try to address the issues you and your neighbors present to them. You may choose to visit one table or all of the tables. Just come to the session that works best for you. The time you arrive and how long you stay is entirely up to you.

A list of the primary issues and concerns raised at the event, as well as the experts' responses to them, will be posted on EPA's website shortly after the event. Go to:
