

CONSENT TO ENTER PROPERTY

PFE ORIGINAL

Property: Property located across Hoult Road from the Big John Salvage Site
817 Hoult Road, Fairmont, Marion County, West Virginia
Owned by Mr. John Blumetto

The undersigned consents to entry to the above described property ("Property") by the United States and the State of West Virginia and their employees, agents, contractors, and authorized representatives (collectively "Responders") for purposes of installing a monitoring well (designated as MW-16 - see attached map) and collecting groundwater samples from this well ("Response Activities"). This monitoring is being conducted as part of the Remedial Investigation and Feasibility Study (RI/FS) for the Big John Salvage Hoult Road Superfund Site in Fairmont, West Virginia. The Response Activities will require, at a minimum, that the following personnel and equipment be brought onto the Property periodically:

- 3 to 5 EPA personnel
- 3 to 5 West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection (WVDEP) personnel
- 3 to 5 contractor/subcontractor personnel
- 2 to 3 vehicles

FILE

Use of your Property by the Responders shall include all activities related to the installation of monitoring wells, periodic sampling of ground water at the site (approximately 4 to 6 times per year) and abandonment of the well when it is no longer needed, and will include the temporary parking of vehicles and equipment and the collection of groundwater samples from the existing wells. Reasonable efforts will be made to minimize impacts to grass and dirt areas. Reasonable efforts will be made to restore impacted grass and dirt areas to their preexisting conditions.

Consent to enter is given for a period of 5 years from the date this agreement is signed. This agreement does not constitute a grant of any permanent easement.

The owners agree not to use the areas involved in the Response Activities for any purpose that would interfere with or disturb, remove, or destroy any structures, equipment, vehicles, or any temporary improvements thereon or used by the Responders.

The undersigned represents that he is authorized to sign this document on behalf of all owners of the Property.

1-6-05
Date

John Blumetto
Mr. John Blumetto

