Cal-Parks Santa Cruz
WILDER RANCH STATE PARK

Wilder Ranch State Park has 4,505 acres, with 34 miles of hiking, biking and equestrian trails winding through coastal terraces and valleys. Several restored buildings once belonging to the Wilder family are preserved. The park has tours and living history demonstrations to help visitors explore the history of early ranchers and farmers along the Central Coast. The site was originally the main rancho supplying Santa Cruz Mission. It later became a successful and innovative dairy ranch. Surrounding grounds include Victorian homes, gardens, and historic adobe.

Visitation: 239,025 visitors in fiscal year 1995-96.

Location/Directions: The park is north of Santa Cruz, immediately west of Highway One, just a mile or so past the Western Drive stoplight.

Telephone: (408) 423-9703

Operating hours: call the park for information.

Seasons/Climate/Recommended clothing: the weather can be changeable; layered clothing is recommended.
